Upcoming Brown Bag Lecture/Discussion
August 7, 2019 : Wednesday 1:00 – 2:30 pm

SHEILA MALKIND - LEGACY FILM FESTIVAL ON AGING

At this Brown Bag lecture, Sheila Malkind, the founder and director of the Legacy Film Festival on Aging will discuss the festival which celebrates the aging process as profound and meaningful, often challenging, and always courageous. It asks the viewers: “Will we “age gracefully,” or crankily, or painfully? Or defiantly?

Sheila says “The filmmakers portray some of the many facets of this unique, ever-changing experience honestly and artfully and always with compassion and love for their subjects.” Besides showing some of the trailers of the 2019 Festival, Malkind will discuss the LOFOA short film programs she plans to bring to Bay Area colleges. The aim is for younger people to be motivated to learn about the intergenerational issues of aging.

9TH ANNUAL LEGACY FILM FESTIVAL ON AGING
September 20-22, 2019
New People Cinema, Japantown

NEXT MONTH

Wednesday September 4th Brown Bag program will be a talk on Neuroscience and Pain with John V. Lin King, Ph.D Candidate in Neuroscience at UCSF. His presentation will provide an update on the latest research on the biological bases of pain sensations, with particular focus on chronic pain.

Free and open to the public. Bring your own lunch. RSVP suggested.

Location: SF State's Downtown Campus, 835 Market St., Room 626
Directions: Enter from the sidewalk into 835 Market under the purple SF State banner.

More lectures, groups, events, and classes at olli.sfsu.edu olli@sfsu.edu 415.817.4243