Monday, Feb. 12: “A Short Overview of American Immigration”
Douglas Kenning, Ph. D., University of Edinburgh, Scotland

Every American, except Native Americans, descends from folks who came ashore welcomed with hostility by previous arrivals. This talk scans that story from Spanish seeking to exploit “The Land of Flowers;” aggressive English seeking profit; Africans driven here by whips; Germans wishing to be left alone; Irish escaping famine; Sicilians forced here by poverty; Jews fleeing hatred and on and on . . . . It is a story with no ending, for America remains the permanently unfinished country.

Douglas Kenning has taught different aspects of Western civilization at universities in Tunisia, Japan, Italy and the U.S. He lives half the year in the Bay Area and half the year in Siracusa, Sicily, where he runs Sicily Tours, leading intellectual and mythically focused tours.

The meeting will be held in The Rosa Parks Room, Cesar Chavez Student Center at 1:00 p.m. Social time will follow. Sixty Plus members whose last names begin with the letters Gr - Hal are requested to bring treats. If you are not attending, make sure you contribute or arrange to have someone bring something for you.

Shuttle Bus Times: Pick-up time for each program is at 12:15 p.m. at the Lake Merced parking lot at the foot of Sunset Blvd. A second bus will be available if necessary. The return trip leaves at 3:00 p.m. from in front of the Creative Arts Building on Holloway Avenue.

Monday, Feb. 26: “Scandinavian Crime Thrillers Today”
Jim Kaplan, Professor Emeritus at Minnesota State University, Moorhead, Minnesota

Dr. Kaplan discusses the Scandinavian crime novels enjoying world-wide popularity and huge successes as books, movies and television shows. Featured in this program will be “Jar City” by Icelandic author Arnaldur Indridason, “Snowman” by Norwegian author Joe Nesbo and “The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo” by Swedish author Stieg Larsson. These crime thrillers enable readers to learn about the real lives of the Scandinavian people today and are an entertaining and exciting introduction to literature and the humanities.

The meeting will be held in The Rosa Parks Room, Cesar Chavez Student Center at 1:00 p.m. Social time will follow. Sixty Plus members whose last names begin with the letters Hal - Iz are requested to bring treats. If you are not attending, make sure you contribute or arrange to have someone bring something for you.

President’s Message – February, 2018

Welcome to the second semester of SixtyPlus, 2018.

Our first meeting of this new year came with rain and wind. Thirty-two hearty Sixty Plus members braved the elements and enjoyed a wonderful talk about paper conservation by Anisha Gupta, Fine Arts Museum professional. Ms. Gupta was informative and engaging in her presentation of the art of rescuing damaged, paper-based art. In addition to her slide presentation and discussion, our Sixty Plus member Richard Soward brought a copy of a newspaper from the early 1800s that he had professionally conserved using the processes that Ms. Gupta described. This newspaper has been preserved in a plastic laminate material and should last for another 200 years. Thanks, Richard, for bringing your perfect example of paper conservation. I also want to thank Vivian Imperiale for recommending this wonderful and informative speaker. Another Home Run for Vivian!

Erwin Kelly organized another fun trip to the theatre for SixtyPlus. The group that attended a Sunday performance of “Avenue Q” had a great time. Our general meeting happened to be the following day and those who went to the play found lots to talk about with those of us who didn’t go.

Even if you are unable to attend the Monday meetings, you can still sign up for any of the Sixty Plus sponsored outings. Be sure to check the Highlights for announcements of Erwin’s outings; contact information for Erwin Kelly is listed at the top of the announcements.

Sixty Plus has some great speakers in the pipeline as well as special events planned by the Tour Committee, the Arts and Entertainment committee, and Not-quite-gourmet Dining. Participation will enhance your life and facilitate making connections in our group. Our connection with OLLI has also opened up a lot of possibilities for education and social experiences. I feel very fortunate to be connected to Sixty Plus.

SF JAZZ Center
Friday, April 20, 7:30 p.m.

Paula West does the folk music of our younger days – the songs of social protest from the pens of Bob Dylan, Simon & Garfunkle, Woody and Arlo Guthrie, and Pete Seeger. The good seats are already almost sold out, but I have reserved fifteen tickets. Better sign up now if this program interests you.

SF Jazz Center: 201 Franklin St. at Fell St.
BART to Civic Center or any MUNI down Market Street or Van Ness Avenue

Tickets: $45.00 (a significant reduction from individually purchased tickets).

Coming up

“Born Yesterday,” comes to SF Playhouse. The hilarious play about a gangsterly old guy and his young girlfriend. Opens January 27 for a six-week run.

“It’s Only a Play,” Terrence McNally’s hilarious play appears at the easy-to-reach New Conservatory Theater, at Van Ness Avenue and Market Street. March 2 -April 1.

“Angels in America,” the greatly anticipated, starry, new production at Berkeley Rep opens in April and runs at least until June. Tickets should prove difficult to get. Early orders are suggested.

Brown Bag Lecture: Through the Art Lens with Lola Fraknoi

February 7, 1:00 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.

How can we engage in music, poetry, story-telling and dance in ways that make all of us feel as if we have talent and creativity? Working artist and teacher Lola Fraknoi describes how retired adults have found fulfillment through crafts from different cultures, how younger and older adults have engaged in art activities, and also how senior adults have set up their own community art galleries.

An art teacher at City College of San Francisco and program director at Senior Housing and Family and Children’s Services, Fraknoi also takes her projects to senior centers in the Bay Area. Fraknoi recently designed “Lola’s Artkit,” a collection of innovative two- and three-dimensional creative activities shown to be remarkably effective for adults with memory loss who have used them to create inspirational and unique pieces in memory care centers and private homes.

University OneCard

A Sixty Plus OneCard allows use of the San Francisco State University Library and recreational facilities including programs such as swimming and exercise. Charges for the use of recreational programs are the same as those charged to regular faculty and staff.

Physical education programs and facilities include swimming, strengthening, etc., for an additional charge which varies depending on the program. The Mashouf Wellness Center is a new and exciting state-of-the-art,118,700 square foot facility, supporting general well-being by providing recreation and wellness programs and activities for the SF State campus. The multi-functionality space offers a little something for everyone to support activities and programs appealing to our diverse student body.

The process for getting the OneCard involves several steps and documents. The Sixty Plus coordinator and Board members are working to simplify this process. Details will be provided as soon as they are available.
Not-quite-gourmet Dining....
Bambino’s Ristorante

945 Cole St. between Carl St. & Parnassus Ave.
Tuesday, February 27, 11:30 a.m.

If you’re into non-fussy, straight-up Italian food, Bambino’s beckons. For the past thirty years, this cozy little neighborhood gem in the heart of Cole Valley has been pleasing hungry crowds with its classic Italian fare. Locals flock to this place for hand-tossed pizza, panini, and pasta — linguini with clams or mussels, fettucine carbonara, buckwheat pappardelle with mushrooms and brown butter, lasagna, and cannelloni — while the carb-averse head for the cioppino, eggplant parmigiana, and chicken marsala. There is something here for everyone. Mangia!
